LETTERS FROM CONTRIBUTORS

This donation is sent in my Mother's name. As Berenice McNellis, she attended the Academy ('16) and fondly treasures the memories of her four years there. She is always happy to receive your bulletins and looks forward to news from St. Teresa's. Had we not moved from Kansas City, there would have been four Doyles as members of your association.

In this way, I wish to thank the Sisters for the training my Mother received and which she has passed on to us.

Best wishes for continued success.

Margie Doyle Carlisle (Mrs. Wm.)
 1085 - 42nd Street
 Oakland 8, California

Enclosed is my 1960 contribution which I am frank to admit is merely a token of appreciation for the deep feeling I have for the College of St. Teresa and the dear Sisters who were so patient and kind to me during my struggles while studying under difficulty to the final achievement of a degree.

It is with a deep feeling of pride but some humility too that I offer an amount which will provide only one-fifth of the cost of a summer of advanced study for one of those dear Sisters.

.....I hope our class will be 100%.

.....Here is my contribution. Wish it could be more.

.....I'd like to make it 10 times as much, but with five children in school and the parish building, this is all I can spare this year.

.....This is my contribution for books for the library.

ENDOWMENT DRIVE RECEIVES SUPPORT FROM FRIENDS

Contributions from a friend of the college, parents of students, a matching gift from the Ford Motor company, and a Memorial gift have added $252.00 to the total thus far received for the second endowment drive.

The Memorial gift, given in the name of a college graduate's father, purchased a $100.00 microscope needed in the college laboratory.

The need for the microscope was stated in the fund brochure which was mailed at the beginning of the drive to all alumnae.

Sister Paul Joseph reports that several alumnae will be contacted in the near future to fill out information forms for additional matching gifts from supporting companies.

AVILA STAFF SUCCESSFUL

The Avila Staff after a most successful patron drive, spent much thought in disposing of the profit. Maps, charts and a globe were purchased at the cost of eight hundred and ninety dollars. This gift was made to the faculty at the closing program before the Christmas holidays, a gift which made both teachers and students very proud and happy. Another gift, a Hi-Fi was installed in the gym so that the girls could have music for their dances as well as gym classes.

GUESTS AT C.S.T.

Two members of the St. Louis University faculty have been guest speakers at the college during January.

The Rev. R.J. Henle, S.J., dean of the graduate school, conducted a faculty workshop on Saturday, January 7. During the day-long workshop, the faculty examined the aims of the Catholic liberal arts college and the ordering of the curriculum.

The workshop advances the present faculty study of the aims of the college. Purpose of the study is to develop a long-range program for academic development of the college.

On January 25, the Rev. Trafford P. Maher, S.J., noted for his work with business relations and human rights, conducted a business relations institute for business men and women of the city.

The institute was sponsored by the Adult Education division of the college.

The annual Mass for the deceased alumnae of St. Teresa's Academy and the College of St. Teresa was offered on November 5 in the Sisters' chapel.

ALUMNA IN ALASKA

Dear Alumnae:

How much fun it is to receive the Newsletter . . . Alaska seems so far from the campus until the letter arrives. Then it seems like I could walk up 57th street and be there.

We are all very fond of it here. Our two boys are among the more fortunate, for they are both in parochial school. . . They begin teaching French in third grade, German in fourth, and Latin in the fifth. . .

Our daughter, Melaine, and our little David help to keep things from becoming too dull around the house.

Herman is very happy in his position as office manager for one of the big construction companies. . .

Up here, every one works very hard during the long summer days--yes, we do have sunlight 24 hours. But winter, with its darkness, soon takes over. Last winter was very mild . . . it was only fifty below for one week in January. We have snow on the ground now and the children have a large ice skating rink in our side yard.

We have everything you have "outside." This is a modern little city with an occasional log cabin wedged between two new brick or frame buildings.

Contrary to popular belief, our prices aren't too high. Milk, 4 qts. for 89¢; bread, 39¢ hamburger, 39¢; and ice cream 89¢ a half gallon. Of course, I've been here three years now, so I don't know what you are paying for the same things. Gasoline is the most expensive thing -- 55¢ a gallon.

This is truly a land of extremes. It is nothing to see a moose nibbling gracefully in someone's garden. Or to have a float plane land on the river in back of our house.

We have a husky puppy which the boys are trying to break to the sled. It will certainly solve their transportation problem to the indoor swimming pool this winter.

Thank you so much for the Newsletter. I will be looking forward to the winter edition.

Sincerely,
Mary Lou Wilkinson Meiners (C '49)

VACATION WONDERLAND

Forty-five girls, 7 sisters and 3 priests left Kansas City the night of December 16 for Eagle River, Wisconsin. They stopped en route in Chicago and visited with Sister Agnes Bernard. Also in Green Bay they met Sister Constance, Sister Madeline and Sister Rose Daniel. The camp, Our Lady of Sunset Point, is a magnificent spot conducted by the Sisters of Mercy. The week was most enjoyable in spite of the fact that there was not enough snow for skiing. The tobogganing and skating was wonderful. The group returned home the morning of December 22 ready to go back any time.

BUILDING PLANS

Arrangements for the new college building program are progressing, Sister Mary Daniel reports. Negotiations are under way and a report on definite plans for the building should be ready for publication in the next issue of the Newsletter.

MEETINGS OF INTEREST

Sister Mary Daniel and Sister Henrietta Eileen, dean of the college, returned January 21 from attending a meeting of the American Association of colleges in Denver, Colorado, January 18 - 20, and a meeting of the presidents and deans of the five colleges conducted by Sisters of St. Joseph. The latter meeting was held at Mt. St. Mary College, Los Angeles, California, following the Denver meeting.

CST REPRESENTED AT AAC

Sister Mary Daniel, president of the College, Sister Paul, Joseph, alumnae coordinator, Mary Elizabeth Dolan, first vice-president of the alumnae association, and Mrs. Marion Anderson, director of public relations for the college, attended the joint American Alumni Conference and American College Public Relation Association Regional Meeting in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, November 27 - 29.

Following the meeting, Sister Mary Daniel and Mrs. Anderson visited Clarke College, a Catholic woman's college with an enrollment of 900, in Dubuque, Iowa. Sister Mary Daniel made the trip to view the building and expansion program carried on at Clakre. Sister reports that her trip was very rewarding.

DESIGNATE USE OF FUND PROCEEDS

The major portion of the proceeds from the second Annual Endowment Fund will be used to maintain the faculty salary raises initiated after the first drive.

Last year, a total of $3,850 was given to the two schools through the Endowment Fund. This amount was used at the suggestion of the Alumnae Association to increase the salaries of the 30 lay teachers on the two faculties. This year, the same total will be given to the schools to maintain this salary increase.

To date a total of $4,492 has been collected. Of that total, $100 was designated for the purchase of a microscope, $10 was designated for the purchase of books, and $50 was designated as partial expenses for summer study for a college faculty member. This leaves a total of $482 undesignated, which at Sister Mary Daniel's suggestion will be added to the faculty endowment fund.

Mrs. Wm. Bartholome, part-time College Librarian, and mother of Virginia (C '60), Joan (A '58) and Grace (A '59) gave birth to her 12th child, January 17, 1961.

EUROPEAN STUDY-TOUR

The college department of education will offer two new courses during the second semester, both of which will be conducted on a tour of Europe.

CONTEMPORARY EDUCATION IN WESTERN EUROPE, a four-hour course, will include three weeks study of teacher-training colleges at Florence, Italy; Chartres, France; and Reading, England. The second course, APPRECIATION OF THE ARTS, a two-hour course, will include tours of art, music, and drama centers in Europe and England.

Under the direction of Dr. Helen K. Billings, director of the department of education, the students will leave New York, March 22, and return to the campus May 19.

Support for the study project has been obtained from UNESCO and the ministers of education in Italy, England, and France. By 1962, Dr. Billings hopes to have a scholarship loan fund established for students majoring in education who are unable to make the trip because of financial reasons.

For additional information concerning the tour or the scholarship, please call Dr. Billings.

WANTED: FIVE MINUTES AND A FOUR CENT STAMP

A controversial column -- that's what I was asked to write. But I'm in a mood of inaugural cheer, and not at all argumentative. Ask me along September, and the presses will seethe.

Perhaps some of you heard the President of St. Teresa's, Sister Mary Daniel, on a recent radio program called "Conversation." It is an informal interview-type program with Walt Bodine and Jean Glenn on WDAF radio from seven to eight every evening. While Sister performed charmingly, it is not about her cause I wish to write -- as it's a cause to which you are already espoused.

A week after Sister Daniel was on the program, "Conversation" brought a St. Louis priest, Rev. Dismas Clark, S.J., to the microphone. Father Clark has become nationally known for his foundation of Dismas House, a home for penitentiary parolees. Dismas House provides a home, finds a job, and sponsors recreation for these searching men -- but it's not charity, they pay for it. Father Clark emphasized that ex-convicts don't want to be charity-ridden or pitied. They want a chance to prove their worth to their associates, their parole officers, their families, but most of all, to themselves.

Dismas House is a thriving business -- no big profit, but it pays its way. The men respect Father Clark for his comradeship, his humanity, and his ability to get things done. So what's the catch? What can you do about all this? Here's what;

Each inmate in a Missouri penitentiary is maintained at a cost of two thousand dollars ($2000) a year. A prisoner on parole costs the state one hundred eighty-five dollars; compare that to two thousand for keeping him in prison! Paroled, the man supports himself. The one hundred eighty-five dollars he costs the state is parole officer salary and paper work. But here's the punch line -- criminologists agree that roughly 85% of the penitentiary enrollment is paroleable. Less than 10% of this paroleable 85% is paroled, because of the shortage of parole officers. It doesn't make fiscal sense, does it? The Missouri legislature will not grant additional funds for parole officer salary (and these degree-men are woefully underpaid), but spends needless thousands maintaining men in prison who would be better off out of prison.

Who says they'd be better off? Everybody. Especially Father Clark. Parole gives incentive to go straight, stay out of prison, make good. What does a completed prison term give? A broken mind, a paralyzed will, a warped outlook. With twenty-five dollars and a suit of clothes, a dismissed full-timer goes out, buys a gun, gets drunk, and travels the old road. A parolee finds a job, tries to re-establish family ties, struggles to regain his foothold in the niche that was his place in life.

That's the story. Here's what you can do. The Missouri legislature is in a financial soupbowl. Raise gas tax, raise income tax, corporation tax? How to climb the slippery sides? Write your letter today, and point out, in urgent tones, that the state can save several million dollars a year by providing more parole officers, so that more of the 85% paroleable men can actually be paroled. It's money in your pocket, but that's not the whole point. You're a good Christian, aren't you? Won't you give a man another chance? Write to:

Dwight Beals (Senator from this district)
Jefferson City,
Missouri

or: Governor John Dalton
Jefferson City,
Missouri
